to third. Driggs ended the inning by flying to Leggre.

Yale tied the score in the fifth inning. After Hunter was caught a second time when he tried to stretch his single into a double, Bush connected with a single that scored Bush, Reilly for a two bagger and Reilly followed was caught trying to steal second and Vaughn ended the inning by ying out to Greene.

The winning run came in the next period. Way drove a hit liner to Law, who made a pretty catch, and Middle-brook knocked a bounder to the same place. Law came in rapidly to field it as it was a low bounder and just as he got to it the sphere took a tremendous bounce and shot over his head. Easton bounce and shot over his head. Easton laid down a pretty sacrifice, Deyo to Douglas and the latter threw in a hurry to catch Middlebrook at third. The throw went wide of the bag and Gill was not successful in his efforts to get it and the blue captain continued to the plate.

The Princetonians had a ray of hope in the seventh, when with one out ing the inning.
